

ANNOUNCING: THE FIFTH TxDOT/CCT CONCRETE PAVING CONFERENCE

The Cement Council of Texas, with the Texas Department of Transportation and sponsoring agencies, the Federal Highway Administration, the Texas Concrete Pavement Association, Concrete Reinforcing Steel Institute, and Texas Aggregate and Concrete Association, will present the 2008 TxDOT/CCT Concrete Paving Conference at the The Commons Center at UT Austin on November 12 -13, 2008. The conference is designed to cover the best practices of concrete pavement design and construction.

The conference planners have assembled an outstanding panel of concrete paving experts to address design, construction, maintenance, and the latest advancements in concrete paving in Texas. Concurrent sessions will feature bridges and other concrete structures, and the "how to" of building concrete pavements. Continuing Education Units will be awarded.

This conference is a must for the design, construction, and operations personnel of the Texas DOT, cities and counties, consulting engineers, contractors, and equipment and material suppliers interested in concrete pavement design, construction, and maintenance.
